WORKFORCE DEMOCRACY AND FAIRNESS ACT

SPEECH OF

HON. RUSH D. HOLT

OF NEW JERSEY

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Wednesday, November 30, 2011

The House in Committee of the Whole House on the state of the Union had under consideration the bill (H.R. 3094) to amend the National Labor Relations Act with respect to representation hearings and the timing of elections of labor organizations under that Act.

Mr. HOLT. Mr. Chair, I rise in strong opposition to the Election Prevention Act, H.R. 3094. As a member of the House Committee on Education and Workforce, I voted against this fundamentally flawed bill when we considered it and I will oppose it again today.

The majority deceptively named this bill the Workplace Democracy and Fairness Act, which should tell us all that this bill has nothing to do with workplace democracy or fairness. If they wanted to deal with those issues they would bring to the floor the Employee Free Choice Act, which I have long been a co-sponsor of.

Today again the Majority is showing the American public that the Majority don't think we have a jobs crisis in America, and that getting Americans back to work is not their top priority.

Getting the American economy back on track and helping to create jobs is my first, second and third priority. Unlike the Majority, I remain committed to creating jobs immediately and expanding educational opportunity for all Americans. Unfortunately, my amendment to help keep almost 400,000 teachers in the classroom was rejected on procedural grounds.

Rather than bringing to the floor legislation to help create jobs, we are wasting the time of this House attempting to undermine workers rights.

The Election Prevention Act continues an assault on the National Labor Relations Board (NLRB) and the work it does to uphold the rights of workers across our country. This bill will NOT help create a single job. Rather, the bill would allow employers to delay union organizing elections in the hopes of discouraging workers from organizing, encourage frivolous litigation and manipulate the procedures of union elections.

The NLRB has proposed real changes to restore fairness to the union election process and reduce unnecessary delays. For example the proposed rules would allow the electronic filing of petitions, ensure that all parties receive timely information about pending matters, and allow for the consolidation of all appeals into a single post-election appeals process. These are sensible changes. Yet, the Election Prevention Act would override these proposed rules, and make arbitrary delays commonplace.

This bill is one more solution in search of a problem. The problem is jobs; the solution is Congress taking bold steps to get Americans back to work. At a town hall I recently held, no one asked me about the NLRB, they asked me about jobs and economic growth.

We should be mindful of why Congress approved the National Labor Relations Act (NLRA) and established the NLRB in 1935. Senator Robert Wagner who wrote the NLRA reminded his colleagues that in 1935 "in the highest income bracket, one-tenth of 1 percent of the families in the United States were earning as much as the 42 percent at the bottom." Today's economic conditions are remarkably similar.

Yet, instead of helping workers organize and bargain collectively to help raise wages, improve workplace safety and ensure a comfortable retirement, the Election Prevention Act ignores the economic crisis facing American workers and makes the American Dream even harder to achieve.

A TRIBUTE TO CRAIG SAMUEL

HON. EDOLPHUS TOWNS

OF NEW YORK

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Thursday, December 1, 2011

Mr. TOWNS. Mr. Speaker, I rise today to honor Mr. Craig Samuel for his culinary expertise that has infused Brooklyn with tastes from all over the world while celebrating the roots of New York culture.

Born and raised in Bedford Stuyvesant, Brooklyn, Mr. Samuel developed a strong talent in visual art, and ultimately attended New York City's Art and Design High School. While in high school, his artist's eye was evidenced at home, as he created culinary dishes that were not only delicious, but also beautiful to look at. Mr. Samuel developed a love for the art of cooking at a very early age.

After High School, Mr. Samuel attended Temple University, where he followed his father's wishes and majored in business and economics. Early in his college career, Mr. Samuel's father passed away. After that life-altering event, he soon found himself at the Philadelphia Restaurant School. Never lacking in courage, Mr. Samuel decided that he would approach the chef/owner of the most revered restaurant in Philadelphia, which was also one of the most important restaurants in the world of haute cuisine, Le Bec Fin.

His time spent at Le Bec Fin reinforced that Craig had the talent, stamina, and discipline to compete in the culinary world. After graduating at the top of his class in culinary school and completing his internship, he headed back to New York and ultimately became the executive chef at both The Cub Room and City Hall Restaurants. During this time Mr. Samuel left the U.S. to cook in Spain and in France and do a food tour of Italy. After coming back to the U.S. he decided it was time to open up a venture of his own.

In 2005, while still executive chef at City Hall Restaurant, Mr. Samuel and his good friend and sous chef, Ben Grossman teamed up to go into the barbecue business in Brooklyn. They opened The Smoke Joint in Fort Greene in 2006. Since that time, Mr. Samuel has opened Peaches Restaurant and Peaches HotHouse and has had numerous favorable reviews in Time Out, The New York Times, New York Magazine, New York Press, the Village Voice and many others. The Smoke Joint has the unmatched honor of being the only Brooklyn based barbecue restaurant featured in the world renowned Michelin Guide.

Mr. Samuel is happily married to Laura. They have two children, Tiara, who is currently a junior attending The Fashion Institute of Technology, and Alana who is in her sophomore year at The Saint Paul's School in Concord, NH.
